A. O. H. TO ORGANIZE ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow to Take Action and Choose Officials for the Indoor Baseball Team—Eagles to Organize Their Nine Next Tuesday Night and K. of C. Will Get Busy Tomorrow.

The various teams that will be represented in the indoor baseball league are rapidly getting in shape and all will soon be ready to announce their line-ups. The Ancient Order of Hibernians will meet on Sunday to organize an athletic association, which will have the supervision of arrangements for the indoor baseball team, and other athletic features. A strong team will be formed, and it is rumored that Barnes, who was the star pitcher for the Naval Reserves, will do the twirling for the boys in green this season, taking the place of Carney, who for a time at least, will be unable to play. Stack will be the catcher and the make-up of the team will be nearly the same as last year.

The Fraternal Order of Eagles will select its team at a meeting to be held on Tuesday evening next, and it is expected that the aggregation will make a good showing in the series of games to be arranged.

The Catholic Order of Foresters will have a team in the league, a report that was published to the contrary being declared by those interested in the team, to be untrue. There will be a team and every effort will be made to have the very best that is possible.

On Sunday afternoon a meeting of the Knights of Columbus team will be held at which time a captain and manager will be elected and other details of organization discussed, besides which it is probable that the team will engage in a little practice. There will be a number of changes in the personnel, but Funky will be the catcher with the Knights, contrary reports notwithstanding.

Monday evening the Naval Reserves expect to take steps towards organizing, the Elks have already elected their officials, and the Light Infantry are about ready to announce their captain, players, etc.

That the work of the local indoor baseball league is attracting attention outside of the copper country is evident from the fact that Secretary Welch of the National Indoor Baseball association has written to Secretary Madigan for pictures and data of the local teams.

Other leagues are being formed throughout the iron country and games are expected during the season with Calumet, Negaunee, Ishpeming and Duluth aggregations, which with the regular schedule to begin November 2, will keep things humming in baseball circles this winter.

A PLEASING ENTERTAINMENT.

Caricaturing, Clay Modeling and Landscapes by Ross Crane.

The entertainment given at the Kerredge theater last evening by Ross Crane, under the auspices of the star entertainment course of the Grace M. E. church of Houghton, was greatly enjoyed by the large audience. Mr. Crane occupied a couple of hours most delightfully drawing caricatures, character sketches, a landscape or two, modeling heads in soft clay, and in giving some burlesque piano imitations. He accompanied the work of his hands with a running talk of pleasing humor, pathos and comment, that added greatly to the interest of the entertainment. As a caricaturist, able to outline a character with a few deft touches of the chalk, Mr. Crane showed much skill and ability, and several portraits of well known personages were very life-like. He made a dawning representation of Roosevelt in a very few lines. "He isn't finished," said the lecturer, and added "though some politicians at Washington think he is." In the clay modeling the faces of Big Bill Taft, Uncle Sam, Shakespeare, Abraham Lincoln and John Bull were depicted in a very artistic manner, the plastic material assuming the various forms very rapidly under the deft manipulation of the artist. The number was the first of the series in the Star entertainment course for the season and if the rest are as good, the season should prove a decided success.

W. F. TRAYES UNITED IN MARRIAGE IN CANADA

The Cornwall (Ont.) Freeholder has the following mention of the recent wedding of W. F. Trayes, now a resident of Menominee. The groom is well known in the copper country, as was his former wife, since deceased, Mr. Trayes having been the editor of the Hancock Journal. "A very quiet but pretty wedding took place on the afternoon of Tuesday, Oct. 5, at the home of Mrs. John McNicol, Fourth Concession of Lancaster, when her daughter, Miss Margaret McNicol, was married to W. F. Trayes of Menominee, Mich. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. U. Tanner, pastor of St. Andrew's church, in the presence of friends and relatives of the bride. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of mauve silk and lace and was given away by her brother, Duncan McNicol. The house was beautifully decorated and the bay window, in which the young couple stood, was flanked and arched with garlands and ferns. Miss Sophia Macdonald rendered Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered. After the ceremony luncheon was served in the dining room, which was decorated in a most tastefully original manner with maiden hair ferns, potted plants, cut flowers, asters and carnations. The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl hoop ring. The costly presents received by the young couple were of rare beauty and utility. At the station a throng of old friends and other well-wishers gathered to see Mr. and Mrs. Trayes take the train for Toronto, Chicago and other western points. After an extended wedding trip they will reside in Menominee, Mich. A handsome gown of imported English brown broadcloth, trimmed with cut jet buttons, was the bride's going away costume, with brown dome crown hat to match, trimmed with wings and jet ornaments. The bride is a member of one of Glangary's oldest families, and the groom is a newspaper man well known in the United States and Canada. He is managing editor of the Menominee Daily Herald-Leader and editor of the Northwestern Farmer."

HANCOCK CHURCH SERVICES.

Sunday service at First M. E. church will be as follows: Class meeting, 9:30; public worship, 10:30, topic, "Waiting Upon God"; Sunday school, 12 m.; Junior league, 2:45; Epworth league, 6:30; evening worship, 7 o'clock, topic, "Subjugation of the World; Personal Piety." This is the third of a series of five sermons that are being preached on "Worldliness." Those who have heard the previous sermons will be profited by hearing this and the concluding numbers of the series. During the following week the usual evening services will be held and on Wednesday afternoon the Ladies' Aid society will hold its regular meeting at the home of Mrs. I. John Truscott, Hancock street.

Congregational Church. An illustrated lecture on mission work in Mexico, illustrated with stereoscopic views, will be given at the Congregational church tomorrow evening. The slides used will be the best that can be secured, and were obtained at considerable expense by Mr. Gould. The day will be Foreign Missions Day, and a collection for missionary purposes will be taken at the morning service, when the pastor, Rev. J. S. Gould, will preach a sermon on "What Progress in Christianizing the World?"

TO PRESENT PLAY.

Pupils of the Hancock high school are arranging for the presentation of "The Merchant of Venice," in the near future, the proceeds to be turned into the treasury of the athletic association. A dance was at first contemplated, but on account of the numerous entertainments of this nature in immediate prospect in the city it was decided to give the Shakespearean play instead, with a cast composed of high school students and several outsiders. The Hancock high school football team will play Calumet today and should the Calumet team win Hancock would still be in the running for the copper country championship. Houghton would in this event have to meet Calumet and if the latter should win, Hancock, Calumet and Houghton, would be tied, making another series of games necessary.

PLANS FOR ANNIVERSARY.

Arrangements for the celebration of the sixth anniversary of the dedication of the Hancock Methodist Episcopal church will be completed by the middle of next week. Rev. W. E. Marvin, the pastor of the church, is in communication with one or two prominent speakers to make an address at one of the services in connection with the anniversary, and other features are being prepared. One of the details will include the holding of a bazaar in the church basement by the Ladies' Aid society, which will make further preparations after its regular meeting next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. I. John Truscott. The observance of the anniversary will take place about the first week in November.

LADIES MEET TO PLAN FOR ST. PATRICK'S FAIR

The Ladies' League of St. Patrick's church will hold a meeting on Sunday afternoon, at which it is expected plans will be made for holding the proposed fair for the benefit of St. Patrick's church. The date for the fair has not yet been announced, but the event will be a notable one and will be one of the biggest affairs of the kind ever held in the city. At a recent meeting of the members of the Married and Unmarried ladies league the following committees and officers were elected:

Married Ladies league: President—Mrs. N. Canfield. Vice president—Mrs. Ed. Lee. Secretary—Mrs. T. Payn. Treasurer—Mrs. J. Hentzenbach. Executive committee: Hancock—Mesdames J. Hick, E. Herton, J. E. SETS HIS PANTS ON FIRE.

A small boy in one of the rooms of the Central Primary school had an experience yesterday which while more or less painful to himself was rather amusing to the other children. The youngster slipped on the floor and some matches that he carried in his pocket became ignited. The lad began to yell and made frantic clutches at the spot where the pain was. "O, teacher," the class yelled, "Johnny's pants are on fire." The teacher was equal to the occasion and seizing Johnny laid him across her knees. Then she spanked him, spanked him good and vigorously, and thereby extinguished the flames.

BACK FROM ISHPERING.

Superintendent LaRoue of the Hancock public schools returned last evening from Ishpeming, where he attended the meeting of the Upper Peninsula Educational association. The sessions of the convention will continue today, but as the features of last evening's and this morning's sessions consisted of lectures by Prof. J. C. Carter Troop, and Prof. Waldo of Kalamazoo, the former of whom has been heard here, and the latter of whom spoke at the recent teachers institute in Calumet, Mr. LaRoue decided to return home as local school matters demand his attention. Misses Margaret O'Leary and Ollie Carrigan, who are also attending the convention, will return home tomorrow.

WILL PREACH AT PAINESDALE.

Rev. M. H. Eldred, pastor of the Peewabie M. E. church, will preach tomorrow evening at Painesdale at the request of General Supt. Paine, filling the pulpit for Rev. Mr. Hewson, who is absent attending the marriage of his son, at which he will officiate. Dr. W. H. Betty of Houghton will preach tomorrow evening at Peewabie for Mr. Eldred. The pastor will conduct the morning service at half past 10 o'clock, and will preach on the subject, "The Christian Soldier." Class meeting will be at 9 a. m. and Sunday school session at 2:30 p. m.

YANTIC SAILS TOMORROW.

Orders have been received by Capt. Goodell of the Yantic to have the ship leave at noon tomorrow for Detroit, where she will go into dry dock for repairs, remaining all winter, and returning to Hancock in the spring. Several of the members of the second division of Escanaba, who were unable to take part in the annual cruise held last August, will arrive in Hancock tomorrow, and will help navigate the ship to Sturgeon bay. Capt. Goodell will be in command, and it is likely that several members of the Hancock division will go.

HANCOCK BREVITIES.

Repair to the boiler in the city hall have been completed and the city officials can now discharge their duties with some degree of comfort.

It is probable that instead of the proposed temperance meeting to be held on Sunday, October 24, being held at the Kerredge theater as contemplated, it will take place in one of the local churches, probably the Congregational. Mr. Herrick, representing the state prohibition committee, will look into the situation, and definite arrangements will be announced shortly.

The regular weekly meeting of the Peewabie Epworth league will be held on Monday evening next, with Mrs. E. B. Mantell as leader. The subject for the evening will be "Growth of Seed Truth."

The Bible study class of the Peewabie M. E. church has not yet commenced holding its regular weekly meetings, but expects to do so soon. A very large class was organized last year at the time of the visit of Herbert Moninger, and the meetings held every Saturday evening were well attended. Mr. and Mrs. William Williams of Quincy will visit with relatives at Painesdale on Sunday.

Ralph Clabattari returned yesterday from a trip to Chicago where he went to purchase furniture for his new restaurant.

J. H. Peterson of this city has tendered his resignation as local manager for the International Correspondence schools of Scranton. His successor will be Paul Tice, who has been Mr. Peterson's assistant, and the latter will be succeeded by M. O'Sullivan.

The fire department was called out about 6 o'clock last evening to make a run to East Hancock, from where an alarm had been turned in. The alarm was a false one and there was nothing visible to require the attention of the firemen.

Miss Emma Young of West Houghton has returned from Detroit, where she spent three weeks in Grace hospital, and underwent a successful operation.

A number of Hancock Knights of Pythias are contemplating attending the dancing party to be given at the Citizens' bank hall in Houghton by the Pythian Sisters on Tuesday evening, October 28.

The Sade Temperance society of Calumet will give a concert at their hall on Sunday, Oct. 24.

A meeting of the Italian Citizens' league will be held on Sunday afternoon at the Rouleau hall, to make arrangements for a banquet to be held by the society in the near future.

Charles S. McKinney, advance representative of the company that will present "The Girl Question" at the Kerredge theater on Oct. 22, was in the city yesterday making arrangements with Manager Kerredge.

The next meeting of the council will not be held until Friday evening next. Monday would be the regular meeting date but as a special meeting would have to be held Friday to hear objections to the sidewalk assessment roll, there will be no meeting until that time.

The annual church supper will be served this evening by the Ladies' Aid society of the Swedish Lutheran church in the Kauth hall from 5 to 10 o'clock. There will also be a musical and literary program after the supper, with an address by Rev. C. O. Lundquist of Minneapolis. Rev. Lundquist will preach at the Swedish Lutheran church tomorrow evening.

Secretary Madigan of the Indoor baseball league has received from Secretary Welch of the National Indoor Baseball association a request for portraits and data of the local teams. Tommy Verran, formerly employed at the Scott hotel, has taken a position at the new cigar store of Rock & Co. in the Fisher building.

A special meeting of the Columbia Temple of Honor at Quincy takes place this afternoon, at which six candidates will be initiated. The regular meeting will take place next Tuesday evening, and at this meeting the annual election of the officers of Columbia temple and also of the junior temple will be held.

Alois Myers, who has been spending a couple of days visiting with relatives and friends in Hancock, returned last evening to Duluth, where he is connected with the police force.

The funeral of Andrew Gustafson, who died yesterday morning, will be held Sunday afternoon, with services at the Swedish Lutheran church and interment in the Lakeside cemetery.

The remains of the late Ed. Sullivan arrived here last evening and arrangements for the funeral are now being made. The burial will take place either Sunday afternoon or Monday morning, with services at St. Patrick's church and interment in the old cemetery.

STELZLE HOLDS THE RECORD.

Minister Who Speaks Here Sunday Has Addressed Many Working Men.

Rev. Charles Stelzle, superintendent of the Presbyterian department of Church and Labor, who speaks at the Calumet theater Sunday afternoon under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A., not only holds the record for great workmen's mass meetings, but he also directs noon-day shop campaigns in the larger cities which have been unequalled by anyone else. In six cities during sixty days under his direction 500 preachers entered 400 shops and conducted 1,000 meetings, addressing 250,000 workmen. Something like three years ago he inaugurated the plan of the exchange of fraternal delegates between capital labor unions and ministers' associations. This plan is now in operation in 123 cities throughout the United States, and there are nearly 200 ministers who regularly attend meetings of central labor unions, thus practically becoming chaplains of organized labor in their communities. To get to employer and employee together upon a Christian basis in labor conferences is another plan which has been successfully worked out under Mr. Stelzle's direction. For several years he has had charge of the Church and Labor discussions at the great summer conferences for ministers of all denominations, which are held in various parts of the country.

Enjoyed His Work.

The late Charles A. Dunn was as busy in old age as when a young man. He was at his desk up to his last illness. "How can you stand the infernal grind?" he was asked. "Grind!" he exclaimed, "I have nothing but fun."
